FLAG PLAN REJECTED BY FORD

Saw Today for First Time, Emblem Designed to Supplant "Old Glory"

By International News Service.
Mt. Clemens, Mich., July 15.—A so-called "world flag," which the defense attorneys made by employees of Henry Ford at Ford's request and designed to replace "Old Glory" after the war, was unfurled in court here today as the Detroit automobile manufacturer resumed the stand in his $1,000,000 suit against the Chicago Tribune.

Ford testified that he had never seen the flag until he came to court today. (Directions of Ford's counsel to the question whether Ford wanted the flag in question to replace "Old Glory" were resisted.)

Attorney Stevenson asked: "Did you see the flag in an attempt to show the world that it is a friend of President Wilson, he is working against him."

"You regard President Wilson as your friend, don't you, Mr. Ford?" Attorney Stevenson asked.

"I regard him as the President of the United States," answered the witness.

PRESIDENT HIS FRIEND.
After several more questions, Ford admitted that the President might be chosen as his friend, and Attorney Stevenson asked:

"Now, you classified President Wilson as a friend, yet you did much to counteract his influence by the publication of this booklet."

"That book was not published at the time Mr. Wilson was making preparations to speak," Attorney Stevenson asked.

"The question of preparedness was then brought into the trial."

"Are all wars murder?" Ford was asked.

"Not if in defense," was his answer.

"Do you believe in preparedness?" "I am against over-preparedness," he replied.

"What you advocating anti-preparedness and abolition of armaments in 1917?" Stevenson queried.

HUSBAND WOULD DIVORCE WOMAN IN BARNEY CASE

Mrs. Lillian M. Ashenden, at whose house Barney took refuge when he was wanted for the killing of Police-man Delinger, is now the defendant in a suit for divorce brought by her husband, Frank R. Delinger, who lives in Astoria, Ore.

The suit which was entered today in the Superior Court for Suffolk County charged Mrs. Ashenden with a statutory offense with respect to her husband.

The Ashendens were married at Needham on October 23, 1911.

JUDGE WILL TEST AUTO LIGHTS CLAIMED OF.
In order to test out the automobile headlights of Frank, Spence of John street, Brookline, charged with having defying rays on his head lights, Judge Burke in Municipal Court today, ordered Spence to give a demonstration of his lights on Thursday evening, at Boston and Haverford streets, where the judge will test officers Marjorie and Dube, and will then form his decision. Spence insisted that he did not consider his lights at his disposal.

LEATHERING FACTORY STRIKERS FOR 'WETS' FEARED

Ten Arrests in Worcester Riot of 500 at Graton & Knight Factory Gates

Worcester, July 15.—A riot developed today from a clash between the police and strikers from the Graton & Knight Company's leather belting factory and strike sympathizers in front of the factory.

The police swung their clubs freely. They say that the rioters hurled stones and decaying vegetables.

Several men were injured by clubs or stones. Ten men were arrested.

The police say that one rioter attacked a woman on the street, so that a series of women took place in the car on the way back to the police station. Several factory windows were broken by stones.

At the court house today was given in six different sessions. Four men were fined $25 each. One was given six months in the House of Correction, the other ten months.

All were bound to keep the peace for six months. All appeared.

500 IN MOB.
Five hundred strikers and their supporters, on the night when it gathered at 530 on Norfolk and Suffolk streets, who ran along the front and on the crowd refused to be broken up.

A dozen policemen were rushed to the scene to preserve order, as was said. The appearance of the officers angered the crowd. The police declared that the crowd was hurling stones and vegetables.

The police advanced with clubs drawn and the crowd refused to be broken up. The men were arrested and taken to the police station.

Broken heads, on both sides and prisoners, were given medical treatment. Two men were arrested and taken to the police station.

General Pershing was given a warm welcome by the British expeditionary forces, arrived in London from France shortly after noon today and given a tremendous ovation.

General Pershing had arrived at Dover on the destroyer Olympia and, as the warship moved through the harbor, the British gun of war and shore batteries fired a carousing salute of welcome.

At Dover, General Pershing was met by General Sir H. H. Horne of the British army. A guard of honor was provided for the general in London and the train arrived at Victoria station at 12:15.

Colonel William Churchill, Secretary of State for War, representatives of Royal Naval Air Force, the British command-in-chief, and a guard of honor officially welcomed General Pershing to the city.

Tartar Troops Slay 600 Armenians on Governor's Order

By International News Service. London, July 15.—Six hundred Armenians have been massacred in the Transcaucasian province of Karabagh by Tartar troops, said a news agency dispatch from Yerevan today.

The massacre was carried out on orders of the governor of the province, who is reported to have been arrested by allied troops as a result of the assault.

Fifty girls and young women were reported forcibly carried off by the Tartar soldiers.

Yegh was in court on a bill of information charging him with selling a beverage bottle containing less than one-half of one per cent of alcohol.

Attorney Robert G. Dine argued for the demurrer on the wording of the statute passed by Congress Nov. 21, 1918. He contended that the word "beer" as appearing in this statute did not refer to an intoxicating beer.

Assistant United States Attorney Goldberg argued that "beer" was used in the meaning of the law. Judge Anderson ruled for the defendants.

Arguments followed by appearance of Vogel, who retorted his plea of not guilty and filed his demurrer through his attorney. The courtroom was well filled with hear men, who had gathered to hear the outcome of the first case which arises so closely to their business.

Attorney Dine led the statute which, rebuffed of its legal verbiage, is simply that it is unlawful to sell

FISH FAMINE ON FRIDAY IS OUTLOOK
A fish famine on Friday is the prospect for Bostonians on account of the strike of local union fishermen.

Retail markets have a lower stock of fresh fish on hand than for years. Only 5 per cent of the normal catch was brought into this port today.

A small amount of fish is being brought in by the Italian fishing fleet, whose workers are not members of the union. This fish is of excellent quality, but at 40 per cent of the normal price.

Some of the fish arriving here came by boat or train from Maine, Nova Scotia and Cape Cod, but as it has been caught some time in the first-class condition, although heavily iced.

Cod and haddock brought in by Italian today will last for sixteen cents a pound, whereas at present two to five cents in normal times. Very little fish is being taken out of cold storage, as the fish handlers decline to handle it. The best retail markets do not care to handle it at any time.

Zeppelin Over-Ocean Service to Boston Starts in Fall
By International News Service.

New York, July 15.—That Zeppelins several times the size of the R-34, and capable of carrying 300 tons of freight, will begin making regular trips between German and American ports within a year, was the declaration today of Hans Kahr of the Monopoli Export and Import Union, who caused the following advertisement to be inserted in German language papers here:

Advertisement notice—commencing October 18:
"Discovered Zep passenger and freight service between Düsseldorf, Berlin, Hamburg, New York, New Orleans, San Francisco, and Honolulu on and after September 18."

Kahr said he had arranged for the advertising at the request of an American banker whose name he was not privileged to make public. The banker, he said, is agent for a transatlantic freight and passenger service to be financed by German, American and British capital.

He said he had few doubts about the new air service, but that the first flight would be made by a new ship, built by the German navy and named "Düsseldorfer und Berlin" in Germany.

TRUSTEES APPEAL TO WAR BOARD

Boston, striving with might and main to avert a strike on the Elevated road, stands confronted with an increase of $1.70 in its tax rate because of the Elevated's $4,000,000 deficit. This was announced today by Acting Mayor Francis J. W. Ford.

Boston's present tax rate is $21.70. The increase from the Elevated's deficit will make it $23.40. How much higher the tax rate will soar because of the loss of liquor license revenue is a problem business men face with alarm.

Meanwhile to avert the Elevated strike voted for Thursday morning at 4 o'clock, the board of public trustees wired the National War Labor Board in Washington today to hasten its decision on the petition of the employees for increased wages.

So serious was the Elevated situation today that the public board of trustees began to hold continuous sessions until the crisis has been averted.

The War Labor Board's decision is expected to come through today.

The inevitable increase in Boston's tax rate was described today by Acting Mayor Ford as "outrageous."

"This increase in the tax rate is inevitable," said Mr. Ford. "It is a result of the strike of the Elevated employees. The whole Elevated problem was a permanent piece of legislation. The stockholders, though, are still getting their dividends."

CHURCH RECOVERIES.
Absolute recoveries is what I advocate for the road. If the road had been put into bankruptcy months ago the present conditions could not have arrived. In addition to this new burden the Elevated puts upon the city, the company still owes the city $250,000 in back taxes.

The Elevated trustees this afternoon issued the following statement: The trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company fully appreciate the situation.

They are convinced that the company will be able to meet its obligations. They are convinced that the company will be able to meet its obligations. They are convinced that the company will be able to meet its obligations.

McKNIGHT BANK LOSES ANOTHER DEPOSITOR

Foresters Withdraw Funds as Result of De Valera Action
in Senate

The action of President Edwin T. McKnight of the state Senate in declining to appoint for James De Valera, President of the Irish Republic, to speak before the Senate on the recent visit to Boston, has cost the bank with which he is affiliated another depositor.

The high standing committee of the Massachusetts Catholic order of Foresters has following a formal vote, withdrawn its funds, amounting to $10,000, from the bank, Boston Trust Company, with which McKnight is connected. The M. C. F. has a membership of 500.

At last night's meeting of the high governing committee, James J. Brennan of the committee, president of the South Boston Trust Company, tried to explain McKnight's action relative to De Valera. He said he had been asked to return to the bank to the South Boston Trust Company. It is stated on good authority that McKnight's standing committee has no intention of returning the funds to the institution.

Representative James H. Brennan of the committee has challenged McKnight to a joint debate over McKnight's defense of the action of President McKnight in opposing the suggestion of a resolution inviting President De Valera to address the Senate.

DUGS' BAER

Scotch Wog Made Favorite
Over Benny Valger in Triple A Battle

Armory A. A. Selections
Johnny Dundee to beat Benny Valger.
Joe Gibbs to beat Young Edgar.
Young Edgar to beat Frank DeVin.
Bert Jones to beat Young Reagan.

By JACK CONWAY.

Johnny Dundee takes a slight betting favorite for his twelve-round bout with Benny Valger which will be staged at Mechanics Building to-night. The rival lightweights, however, are so well matched that each has about an equal number of supporters.

Dundee's experience and craftiness give him the edge. He's a veteran campaigner and has won decisions over the world's greatest lightweights. The little New Yorker has been more in the limelight during the past seven years than most of our champions.

Right here in Boston Dundee has scored some of his greatest pugilistic successes. Consequently it is very natural for the fans to incline toward Dundee for his bout tonight.

Since Benny Leonard grabbed the lightweight crown from Freddy Welsh Dundee has been one of the few boxers who has been able to score some winning victories over him. Dundee's style of attack made it impossible for the little New Yorker to win with his punches which crashed like lightning bolts. Dundee's style of attack made it impossible for the little New Yorker to win with his punches which crashed like lightning bolts.

Valger is one of the new crop of ring stars. He has come to the front at a lively clip during the last few months. He has scored some of his greatest successes in New England rings. His two victories over Frankie (Venez) Stitt stamp him as one of the leaders in the light weight class of the world. He has been in the limelight during the past seven years than most of our champions.

The French flash reminds one a lot of Dundee. He moves around the ring with dazzling speed and is able to score some winning victories with his left. He also packs a healthy punch in his right.

Tonight's contest, however, will probably develop into a war of attrition. There will also be a lot of feinting and feints of feints.

Dundee plans to force the battle. He says he does not intend to move around the ring with his left hand. He will come out with his right hand and will try to knock Valger out with his right hand.

A repeat crowd will be on hand to witness the bout. Live Lewis announces that he will give the bout a special attraction. He will give the bout a special attraction. He will give the bout a special attraction.

Joe Gibbs, who has been making his home in this city, will meet Young Edgar of Brooklyn in the semi-finals of eight rounds. Young Edgar will oppose Frankie (Venez) Stitt in the final round. Young Edgar will oppose Frankie (Venez) Stitt in the final round.

Jack Britton, welterweight champion, recently ran out of a bout with Alvin Karpis. Karpis was knocked out by Britton. Karpis was knocked out by Britton. Karpis was knocked out by Britton.

These are new boxers who have no much confidence in themselves as Alvin Karpis. He is a veteran fighter and has won many bouts. He is a veteran fighter and has won many bouts. He is a veteran fighter and has won many bouts.

Lawrence, Kansas
"PUTTING THE NEXT ONE OVER" WITH "DUGS" BAER

WHITE hopes were as lively as a scalawag when Jack Johnson was top-kicker in the blimp department of knuckling. Willard knocked Jack into the land of Ferdinand and Isabella. The done were glad to see any American, as they buzz it that they are still waiting for Christopher Columbus to bring that jewelry back. Then Jack Dempsey blasted up like a truck set of Kris Kringle's whiskers in an Xmas fire and jostled Willard back into the egg and hamlet of Lawrence, Kansas.

JOSS was in a dithered mood Lawrence feeling like a frog among tadpoles, but there ain't much doubt that Dempsey knocked him right back to the size of the toad. Another thing is that the milkman, butcher, grocer, baker and so forth of Lawrence, all laid a little bet smack on Willard's nose to win. Something that was laid on Jack Johnson's nose to win. Something that was laid on Jack Johnson's nose to win.

NOW, what is Jess going to mean when he paddies up the main stem of Lawrence, Kansas? Will he look the butcher in the eye while the butcher weighs him out a pound of sugar? Will he look the baker in the eye while the baker weighs him out a pound of sugar? Will he look the baker in the eye while the baker weighs him out a pound of sugar?

CAN Jess grasp the baker's mist? Lawrence, Kansas, has four big buns in the shape of a bun. Can Jess grasp the baker's mist? Lawrence, Kansas, has four big buns in the shape of a bun. Can Jess grasp the baker's mist? Lawrence, Kansas, has four big buns in the shape of a bun.

WHEN the milkman ladles out the powdered punwonder in the young man's hand, will he look the butcher in the eye while the butcher weighs him out a pound of sugar? Will he look the baker in the eye while the baker weighs him out a pound of sugar? Will he look the baker in the eye while the baker weighs him out a pound of sugar?

THE towel that flapped into the ring wasn't made of muslin. It was made of muslin. It was made of muslin. It was made of muslin. It was made of muslin. It was made of muslin.

IF Jess has any health left after that Toledo thing, we advise him to take himself out like that barber foretold.

LAWRENCE, Kansas, got an awful trimming, gains, and takes its place in the history right after that of Johnstown, Pa., and that town at the foot of Vesuvius. NEEDHAM TIRE IS GIVING SATISFACTION

In regard to the new issue of 100,000 7 per cent. convertible and convertible preferred stock issued by the Needham Tire Company and offered by Burgess Lang & Co. at $50 a share, President H. H. Hambro, writes that:

"This new financing you are handling for us is made necessary by the rapid growth of the business of the Needham Tire Company. We are making a tire today that is giving universal satisfaction wherever it is used and it is an interesting fact for you to know that our adjustments are now 1 per cent. of our gross sales. Our increased factory facilities will diminish the cost of our tire production on an average of 12 per cent. This saving alone will show a very short period due to the great earnings and dividend possibilities that will accrue to the entire shareholders of this corporation."
